Alabama Baseball Coaches Association
1st Annual "Professional Scout School"

Objective: To allow high school and college coaches to understand how a professional scout evaluates amateur players. This will in-turn allow these coaches to better evaluate their players, thereby giving them a truer gauge when recommending them to college coaches and professional scouts. This will also help clear-up some misconceptions about scouting and evaluating players for amateur coaches.

Where: The All-Star Weekend at Troy University, held in Troy, Alabama.

When: July 2 – 4, 2009. Check-in dorm at 1:30 p.m. Thursday July 2, School begins at 3:00 p.m. Scout School ends on Saturday, July 4 at 3:00 p.m.

Cost: $100 for 2009 ALABCA members, $135 for non-members. All money is due with application.

What to bring: Twin bed sheets, shaving kit, shower towels, etc. Stopwatch, notepad and sunscreen will also be needed. Dress comfortable for scout school. All-Star Weekend is always hot! You'll stay in dorm with community college coaches and high school players. We'll try to separate you from them in another area of dorm.

Daily Events: You'll be in the classroom talking scouting and around the field evaluating players putting to use what you've learned in the classroom.

Send this form in completely filled out with your $100 check made out to ALABCA (no need to detach here)
Mail application & check to: ALABCA - P.O. Box 187 - Shannon, Alabama 35142
* (Make a copy of this form for other coaches and/or for yourself before sending in)
Applications must be postmarked by Friday, June 19, 2009

Please Print Clearly

Coach: _____ School: _____
First Name Last Name

Cell #: (_____) _____ Home #: (_____) _____

Email: _____

Home Address: _____
Street (or P.O. Box, etc.) City State Zip

Call Barry Dean with any questions (205)837-7727, leave a night time/cell number
Or email questions to: barrydean_alabca@bellsouth.net