_____ $30 Extra banquet ticket per person. Include this cost in your check.

_____ TOTAL ENCLOSED

You may register on-line at our web-site, www.alabca.org, with a credit card through "camppros." This will cost you an extra $6.61 to cover the camppro service and the credit card fee that the ALABCA is charged. The last day to pre-register on-line is Friday, January 6. This is our second year using this service. Be patient in case problems occur. Camppros provides a great service.

The plan this year is to offer members who attend the convention access to all the speakers on line by having a password and being able to view their talks anytime and as often as you want to on your computer. For coaches who do not attend the convention and want to view the entire convention they will be charged $150 per coach (this includes 2012 membership), or they may purchase individual talks at $10 per talk, after joining the ALABCA for $35. Please fill this out completely so we can keep you informed of ALABCA events via email & so you'll receive mail outs at home.
