

Barry Dean
President/Executive Director

- Barry has been the President / Executive Director of the ALABCA since 2000.
- He Coached baseball on the high school level for 2 years, the community college level for 9 years and the four-year collegiate level for 6 years.
- His most recent coaching stint was as head coach at Lawson State Community College in Birmingham from 2006 – 2009.
- Began his coaching career at Troy University in 1990 as a graduate assistant.
- Completed his Masters Degree in Health and Physical Education in 1992 and his K – 12 Teachers Certification in Health and Physical Education in 1995.
- Barry's a native of Montgomery, AL. where he graduated from Montgomery Catholic High School in 1983.
- He walked on at Chattahoochee Valley C.C., earned a scholarship his second quarter there. Was voted team captain by his teammates of the 1986 state community college champion "Pirates."
- Earned his B.S. degree in Psychology from Auburn University at Montgomery in 1990, while playing for the first two "Senator" baseball teams in 1988 & 1989.
- Traveled to England, Germany, Brazil & Nicaragua in 1998 & 1999 as a Major League Baseball International Envoy (Diplomat) Coach to teach & promote baseball.
- Has traveled to the Dominican Republic on four occasions to teach and learn baseball. His first trip in January of 1992, he spent a month at the Los Angeles Dodgers Complex. He lived there, helped the team practice each day and learned the Dodger way of baseball.
- Spent the summers of 1994 & 1995 in Hornell, New York as the skipper of the Hornell Dodgers of the NCAA New York Collegiate Summer League.
- He attended the Harry Wendelstedt Umpire School in January of 2000.
- He spoke at the Alabama Baseball Coaches Association state coach's convention in Birmingham in 2001 and the American Baseball Coaches Association's 2007 national convention in Orlando, Florida. He also spoke at the National High School Baseball Coaches Association national convention in Nashville in December of 2010. All three times he spoke on "Player & Coach – Umpire Relationship."
- He umpired on the high school, community college & four-year college levels.
- He was the Alabama Baseball Coaches Association's 2010 Distinguished Service Award recipient.
- Barry is single and currently resides in Montgomery.